Seismic Handler command line version: SH

The command line version of SH is intended for scientific research. Initially there is no graphical interface, but of course one has the possibility to plot waveform data and associated information via several output channels? - including X Window System and PostScript.

Content

- general overview
- command documentation including modifiers
- bundled scripts
- output channels?
- Examples?