

Menu entry Save Status

Saves current picks and parameters in binary file in the `SSH_SCRATCH` directory. A possibly previously created status file is overwritten.

A Restore Status command restores the values saved with the last Save Status. This option allows to save a preliminary analysis result and restore it after doing processing steps with undesired results.

back to documentation index